BIO

The Funky Butt Brass Band was formed in 2008 by six talented musicians who respect and revere the New Orleans brass band tradition. The FBBB takes traditional New Orleans brass tunes and sprinkles in their own brand of special Saint Louis musical magic. At any given gig, you'll also hear some Chicago blues, Memphis soul, Southern rock and St. Louis R&B.

DISCOGRAPHY

The band has released six studio albums, including two holiday records. In 2020, they released Onward, a collection of seven brand-new original tunes and five inventive cover songs, including "Such A Night," a tribute to the late New Orleans artist Mac Rebbenack, a/k/a Dr. John.

FESTS

The FBBB has appeared at numerous festivals, including the King Biscuit Blues Fest, Beale Street Music Festival, Roots N Blues N BBQ, the Big Muddy Blues Festival and Blissfest. They have been privileged to share the stage with some of their musical heroes, including Dr. John and the Lower 911, Rebirth Brass Band, Bonerama, Hot 8 Brass Band, New Orleans Suspects and the Royal Southern Brotherhood.

PRESS

"Although a sousaphone and a marching snare drum are part of the FBBB experience, the local sextet are well-versed in all things funk. Its razor-sharp horn section blasts out the sort of punchy stabs that have made thousands of white people dance to Tower Of Power, while its unhinged rhythm section recalls the greasy funk that drips from fingers and collects in the gutters of New Orleans." (RIVERFRONT TIMES)

"For FBBB, tribute takes the form of a working brass band, and they are nothing if not reverential. These cats can play, and they offer nothing but praise for the traditional brass band. The horns are the key, of course, and they perform admirably." (OFFBEAT, NEW ORLEANS MUSIC MAGAZINE)
